

The new Data Protection Law is being introduced 25th May 2018.

In line with the new legislation, we would like to let you know how we use and store your personal information.

Why we have your personal information.

We have your personal information from either purchases you have made online or from leaflets that you have filled in at Trade fairs or festivals.

How your data is stored.

Your personal data is stored on our company database which is extensively protected and is backed up on a daily basis.

Who we share your data with.

We do not share your data with anyone or any company. Your data is purely for our records.

How we use your data.

Your personal data is used solely for the purpose of receiving newsletters, NAS Corporation (Gin Eva) Marketing and sending out and following up on orders.

How long we keep your data for.

We keep your data until you ask for it to be removed.

Your Rights

You have the right to get a copy of the information that is held about you.

This is known as a Subject Access Request.

This right of subject access means that you can make a request, under the Data Protection Act, to any organisation processing your personal data. The Act calls these organisations 'data controllers'. You can ask the organisation you think is holding, using or sharing the personal information you want, to supply you with copies of both paper and computer records and related information.

You have the right to have your details deleted from the database at any time, please just write to us at Ginevasales@nascorporation.biz
