PRIVACY AND OUR WEBSITE

The type of personal information we collect on our website depends on how you make use of the site. When you visit the site, your server address, domain name, the date and time of the visit and the pages viewed will be recorded.

Our web site may use "cookies" so that we can better serve you with customised information when you return to our web site. Cookies are identifiers which a web site can send to your browser to facilitate a user's next visit to our web site. You can set your browser to notify you when you are sent a cookie, giving you the option to decide whether or not to accept it. If you disable cookies, your use of our site may be affected.

Information collected about your visit to our site is retained for statistical and website development purposes, and not in a form which would enable us to identify you.

IF YOU SEND US AN EMAIL

If you send us an email containing personal information, we will take reasonable steps to ensure the confidentiality of that information. The content of e-mails is sometimes monitored by our host for maintenance and fault detection purposes.

We may also monitor email for legal compliance purposes. E-mails may also be sent to our contractors when they relate to product or service enquiries or complaints. They also treat the information confidentially, but do record it in our in-house database. Although we take steps to protect information sent by e-mail, e-mail is not a secure method of communication. If you are concerned about sending your personal information to us in this manner you may prefer to contact us by any of the other means set out below.

THIRD PARTY WEBSITES

Our web site may contain links to other web sites. NAS Corporation is not responsible for the privacy practices of web sites not operated by NAS. We encourage our users to read the privacy statements of each and every web site that collects personal information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by our web site.

NOTIFICATION TO CHANGES OF POLICY

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on our web site so our users are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it.

If at any point we decide to use personal information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify users by way of an email. Users will have a choice as to whether or not we use their information in this different manner. We will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.

RESOLVING YOUR CONCERNS

If you wish to gain access to your personal information, have a complaint about a breach of your privacy or you have any query on how your personal information is collected or used please forward your request, complaint or query to admin@nascorporation.biz We will respond to your query or complaint as soon as possible.

DATA DISCLAIMER

While NAS Corporation has made every effort to ensure that the information contained in this website is accurate and up to date, we are not responsible or liable for any errors, inaccuracies or omissions, misuse, or conversion of any data or information contained in, or derived from, this website.

All information on this website is provided to you "as is" with no guarantee of completeness, accuracy, timeliness or of results obtained from the use of this information and is supplied without warranty or representation of any kind, expressed or implied.
